

A WORD IN DUE SEASON...

There are so many changes taking place, it doesn't take Rocket Science to figure out that these times are very tenuous, hanging by a thread. The enemy is giving us enough rope, (in our work and social lives... when we get caught up in trivial arguments and symantics), and he's hoping that the rope he offers us, will be enough to hang ourselves with, just like Judas. We can't really say that these times are precarious, because if we are true Believers in Jesus Christ, then we all know that we have been forwarned... the times are certain and are fulfilling prophecy every day we're allowed to breathe. We need to stop the selfishness and rid ourselves of personal pride for the sake of what and WHO is really important. We need to step back on a daily, perhaps hourly basis, and really re-evaluate why we're involved with certain things, jobs, relationships... what or who is glorified? Do we involve ourselves in projects or do our jobs to impress or out-do one another, just to get the accolades of men? Or do we do our jobs, with the understanding that every single person we meet, is an opportunity to introduce them to eternity, whether it be heaven... or hell.

As I was praying this morning, the Lord quickened me to a journal entry of mine, from about 8 years ago. It is completely relevant for today. When He reminded me of it, I thought of things going on in my own life... certain projects and ministries I am actively involved with... and I believe it was a wake-up call to re-evaluate why I spend my time doing what I do. But then He reminded me that I am not the ONLY one who hears from God. Everyone hears... but not everyone listens.

The Lord spoke to my heart a long time ago and told me that a word in due season can save somebody's soul. I personally believe this piece is for everyone, no matter what vocation or denomination or religious affiliation you claim. God made humanity in HIS image. Whether or not we recognize Him as our Father, is only of consequence on the Day of Accountability. If you call yourself a Christian, if you claim to love the Lord Jesus Christ and want to serve HIM, then this word is for you, as much as it is for me.

The times are cut short, we are fulfilling prophecy and there is a great falling away among the Body of Believers because of incredibly stupid stuff, and the ONLY one who is overjoyed about it, is Satan. He knows if he can keep our eyes on ourselves, our personal agendas, our projects, even our ministries... if he can get us to focus on the politics of it all... (using this election as a precursor to our natural habits to get nit-picky and politically correct, and therefore judge one another for what we might feel is for the greater good). Even if we know in our hearts, the decisions we make are for righteous reasons, we STILL need to humble ourselves and admit that we never have the full picture in front of us. If we did, that would make us God. And we are definitely not. God divulges whatever He desires, to whomever He desires... and wisdom doesn't always come through learned scholars. If Satan can get us to focus on the petty things that are of no real significance in GOD's eyes, but rather in MAN's eyes.... then God loses, and Satan wins. Every minute we spend trying to be politically correct, costs thousands of souls. That is reality.

Please carefully read this, and really check your own heart. You will know if this message is for you... and if you discover that it is, I hope you act on it, without reservation. If you stop to think about it, this applies to every facet of every life, of every believer in Jesus Christ.... and even those who don't yet know Him. Let's refocus our attention on the ORIGINAL PLAN... to "go therefore and make disciples of all nations". Lets fulfill HIS Commission, and forget about ours. We will all have to give our account, and my test today, is whether or not I will have the courage to post this. God simply said to me..."I have placed before you life and death. Choose you this day whom you will serve". I chose The One Whose remained faithful to me, even when I have not always remained faithful to Him.

I AM Here !

Do not be consumed this day with worry and with fear. For I AM The Lord, your Banner... Yehovah NISSI, I AM here. I shall be your COURAGE on the days you feel despair. I shall be PROVISION when earthly pleasures are not there. I shall be your JOY through circumstances that you'll face. For I AM The Lord your STRENGTH, be of good courage...keep your faith.

Be watchful as these days proceed, absorb all that you hear. You will need it in the coming days, rest in assurance, Child... I'm here. Be prepared for My Beloved, yet to come into the fold. I AM watching, waiting patiently... with tear-filled eyes and open arms. Get on your knees, My Child, intercede for those I've called. They are bound by many things, and they have slipped... about to fall.

Let ME be your mouthpiece to those whose hearts have hardened so. I AM THE GOD OF MERCY, extend your hand to let them know... That I AM EL SHADDAI, I AM all sufficient, all they need. Tell them I forgive them, TRUTH opens doors that cannot see. Lead them from where they are, as they stumble in the dark. Guide them humbly to My Light, that I may gently touch their hearts.

Remember where you came from... in the pits of deep despair. Reflect upon My faithfulness, and how I waited for you there. The time is far too short, stop playing church and enter in. Worship ME and know MY THOUGHTS, and help recapture them from sin! Do not be quick to judge, for with the measure that you use... I will honor truth in Word, it will be multiplied to you. So live inside forgiveness, ask for MY MERCY and MY GRACE. Without it, you will step inside the flesh and inflict pain.

There are many wounded spirits not detected by your eye. Keep discernment close at hand and let it's wisdom be your guide. Each one will be accountable for prayers said in My midst. Be careful what you ask, know the price... and count the risk. All hearts of this world will soon be quickened to My Call. As I guide you to the lost, be prepared to risk it all.

This is the season NOT to hoard, but to share all that you have. It is in GIVING, there's abundance... that can be blessed by My Own Hand. It grieves Me when My Children rush through doors to profit gain. Let ME do the blessing, so that I can release the latter rains. Remember I AM PROVISION, I will sustain your every need. Your OBEDIENCE shall be the gateway to the abundance that you need. It is CRUCIAL to employ all that I ask of you this day. For the fields are white, The Bridegroom comes... He will come without delay!

There are disruptions in the spirit that cannot be left to chance. Pray in unknown tongues that frontline warriors will advance. I AM unleashing greater power to those who've endured to this time. Do not be fearful of this hour, although it WILL be of greater trial. I have equipped all those I've chosen, when you are called...come hastily. I am assembling an army to weed the tares from precious wheat.

My angels are dispatched, they are at your beckon call. Use them to do my bidding, and they will keep you from the fall. No plague shall come near thy dwelling as long as you stay closely by My Side. FELLOWSHIP IS CRUCIAL, for I will visit in the night.

You are returning to the time when Elijah walked the earth. You will witness greater glory, be prepared for greater works. You are in the days of miracles, let not your eyes turn from MY gaze. For deception lurks about, devouring Truth amidst the haze. Many signs and wonders shall you see before your eyes. Do NOT get caught up with what you see with clouded sight. Be QUICK TO TEST THE SPIRITS, discerning error from the Truth. Fix your eyes on JESUS, and He'll reveal all things anew.

Each one will be accountable for prayers said in My midst. Be careful what you ask, know the price... and count the risk. All hearts of this world will soon be quickened to My Call. As I guide you to the lost, be prepared to risk it all. Be prepared for both the obvious, and the foolish things to come. I will work all things to fulfill My Plan... until the work is done.

Be obedient, I beg you... with tear-filled eyes and open arms...
Bring SOULS into My Fold, that My Will on earth will soon be done.

Love, Daddy
